PARENTING CONFERENCE

Saturday, May 13, 2017

9:00am – 4:00pm | Holy Trinity High School (2420 Sixth Line, Oakville)

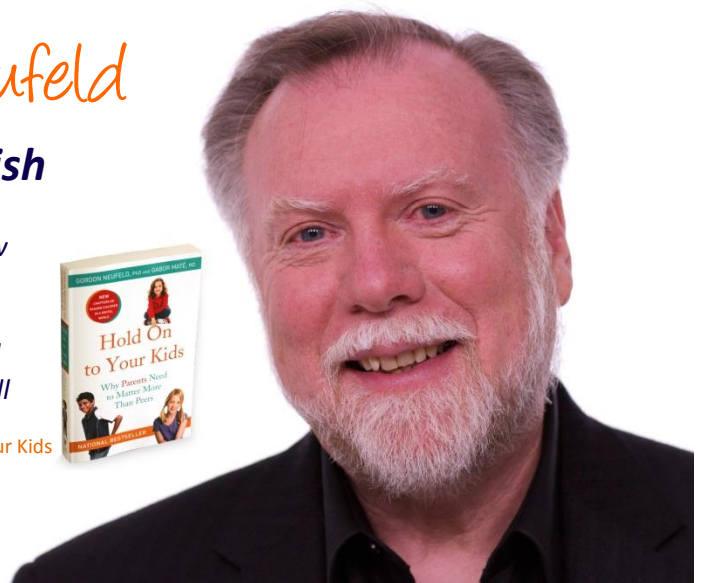

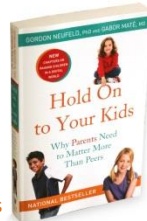

A Day with Dr. Gordon Neufeld

What Children Need to Thrive and Flourish

We all want our children to thrive but in a society that has become outcome driven and a culture that has lost its intuitive wisdom; how do we help children become all they were meant to be?

Join Dr. Neufeld as he guides you through an exploration of the childhood experiences that are critical to growing happy, successful children that are ready to engage with the world and reach their full potential.

Dr. Neufeld is the author of Hold On to Your Kids
