

Escape into reading all summer long.

Burlington Public Library invites you to join our Summer Reading Club. This year, everything will be online. Check-in every week on our website, and you'll find recommended books, resources and activity suggestions for every age group - from pre-readers and up.

Join: Registration starts on July 6. If keeping track of what you're reading helps you stay motivated, you can download our fillable/printable chart.

Participate: Keeping reading all summer! Check out our weekly lists for your next great read.

Check-in weekly: Enter your online ballot for prize draws, and let us know your favourite book or activity from last week.
