

I Read Canadian Day: February 19, 2020

A new nationwide initiative that celebrates the richness, diversity, and breadth of Canadian literature is here.

The I Read Canadian Day, which will happen for the first time ever on February 19, 2020, will empower families, schools, libraries, bookstores, and organizations to host activities and events by reading Canadian books for just fifteen minutes.

St. Joan of Arc is celebrating I Read Canadian Day by adding a touch of Canadian literature to our uniforms. Get creative, but please note that this is NOT a civvies day, as all students must wear their full uniform. Students are invited to accent their uniform with accessories that represent their favourite Canadian Author or story.

Some Ideas:

- Celebrate Robert Munsch by wearing your most original hairstyle in honour of Stephanie's Ponytail, Braids, or Aaron's Hair
- Wear your favourite toque or mittens to credit Thomas' Snowsuit/ 50 Below Zero or So Much Snow!
- Channel your inner turtle, or add a touch of green in honour of the Franklin series by Paulette Bourgeois
- Wear your hair in braids like Anne of Green Gables by LM Montgomery
- Add something that represents your favourite hockey team in honour of David Skuy
- Wear red accents from Red is Best by Kathy Stinson, or to show our Canadian pride!
